

healing_{a broken world}

Globalization and God

Cynthia D. Moe-Lobeda

Fortress Press
Minneapolis

Contents

Preface	xiii
Introduction	1

Part One

Economic Globalization: Disabling Moral Agency

1. Introduction to Globalization	19
Seven Defining Trends / 19
The Political-Economic Argument / 21
Social-Theoretical Framework and Ideological Context / 23
Historical Trajectories / 24
Threats Posed by Globalization / 27
2. Disabling Democracy: Subordinating Democratic Political Power to Economic Power	30
Key Concepts and Premise / 31
The Main Argument: The Dominant Paradigm of Globalization Disables Democracy / 39
Implications / 44

3. Ideological Underpinnings: Neo-Liberalism and Social Amnesia	46
Market Myths / 48
Classical Liberalism: Roots of Global Free Market Ideology / 63
Disabling Moral Agency / 65

Part Two

The Indwelling God: Enabling Subversive Moral Agency

4. Martin Luther: Earth's Creatures "Filled to the Utmost with God"	73
Indwelling Christ: A Center of Luther's Ethics / 74
Indwelling Christ as Source of Subversive Moral Agency / 82
Ideological Dimensions That Undermine Subversive Moral Agency in Luther / 95
5. Subversive Moral Agency Today: God "Flowing and Pouring into All Things"	100
Where We Have Been and Where We Are Going: A Map / 101
Sacramental Cosmic Communio: A Broader Moral Framework / 101
Cosmic Communio as Subversive Moral Agency / 109
Luther's Limitations, Our Limitations, and Beyond / 130
In Sum / 131
6. Invitation	133
A Different and Subversive Story / 136
In Sum / 150

Appendix: Methodological Guideposts	151
Methodological Fault Lines / 152
The Aims of the Project / 156
Location, Communities of Accountability, and Intended Audiences / 157
Guiding Theoretical Principles / 158
Methodological Problems and Working Resolutions / 164
In Sum / 171
Notes	173
Acknowledgments	229
Index	231