

Contents

Preface	xi
Part 1: The Age of Transmission and Reformation	1
1. The Study of Religion	3
Toward a Definition of Religion / 6
Expressions of Religiousness / 7
Categories of Religious Expression / 12
Tradition / 14
2. Myths, Legends, and the Promised Land	18
Story / 18
Myth and Legend / 20
European Attitudes toward America / 23
A Promised Land / 25
The Religious Meaning of America / 26
3. Christendom and the Heritage of Reformation	30
Christendom / 30
The Development of the Reformation / 35
Aspects of the Reformation / 38
The Reformation in England / 45
4. The Native American Traditions	50
Nonliteracy / 53
Common Characteristics / 56
Evolution of Traditions / 66
5. From Anglicans to Episcopalians	70
Verbal Expression / 72
Practical Expression / 74

Social Expression / 75
History in the United States / 77
6. The Puritan Tradition: Congregationalists, Baptists, and Quakers	84
Origins of Puritanism / 84
The Stages of Puritan Development / 86
Diversity of Puritanism / 89
Congregationalists / 91
Baptists / 98
Quakers / 101
Postscript / 104
7. The Reformed Tradition: The Scotch-Irish and English, the Dutch, and the Germans	106
Verbal Expression / 107
Practical Expression / 110
Social Expression / 112
History in the United States / 114
8. The Lutheran Tradition	124
Verbal Expression / 124
Practical Expression / 129
Social Expression / 133
History in the United States / 135
9. The Roman Catholic Tradition	142
The Verbal Expression: Papal Authority / 143
Other Features of Verbal Expression / 149
Practical Expression / 152
Social Expression / 157
History in the United States / 159
10. The Methodist Tradition	167
Verbal Expression / 170
Practical Expression / 174
Social Expression / 178
Methodist Diversity / 180
History in the United States / 183

Part 2: Restructuring, New Beginnings, and Preservations 187

- 11. The Revivalist Evangelical Tradition 189
Basics of Revivalistic Evangelicalism / 190
The Great Awakening / 194
A New American Spirit / 199
Focuses of Later Revivalism / 201
History of Modern Revivalism / 204
- 12. The Public Religious Tradition 209
Verbal Expression / 211
Practical Expression / 217
Social Expression / 223
A Typically American Problem / 227
- 13. The Restorationist Traditions: Christians to Latter-Day Saints 229
The Restorationist Position / 230
Democratic Christianity / 232
Biblicist and Rationalist Christianity / 235
Radical Dispensationalism: Mormonism / 240
- 14. The Jewish Tradition in America 254
Origins of the Jewish Way / 256
Torah / 260
Practical Expression / 263
Social Expression / 270
Orthodox, Reform, and Conservative Jews / 271
- 15. The Eastern Orthodox Tradition 278
Definition of Eastern Orthodoxy / 279
Verbal Expression / 280
Practical Expression / 285
Social Expression / 292
History in the United States / 293
- 16. The African American Traditions 296
Indigenous Heritage / 297
Practical Expression / 304
Institutional History in the United States / 308
Phenomenon of the Preacher / 313

17. New Traditions for the Common People: Millenarian, Holiness, and Pentecostal Traditions	315
Origins / 317
Millenarianism / 317
The Holiness Movement / 326
Pentecostalism / 328
18. Religion and the Crisis of Authority	332
Postbellum Modernity / 334
The New Liberalism / 338
The Social Gospel / 342
New Thought / 345
Positive Thinking / 347
19. The Fundamentalist and Neo-Evangelical Traditions	351
What Is Fundamentalism? / 351
Verbal Expression / 354
Development of Neo-Evangelicalism / 365
The Neo-Evangelicalism of Billy Graham / 366
20. The Age of Radical Pluralism	369
A New Pluralism / 370
The Ways of the Hindus / 372
Buddhism in America / 378
New Thought and the New Age / 389
Islam in America Today / 390
The Reshaping of American Religion / 397
Notes	405
For Further Reading	415
Index	426

A gallery of illustrations follows page 186.