

Contents

Preface xiv

Chapter One The Legacy of Modernity and the New Challenges of Historical Theology 1

The Legacy of Modernity 1

The Question of Authority 2 The Development of Doctrine and the Essence of Christianity 3 Knowledge of God and God and World 6
Christianity and Other World Faiths 8 History, the Historical Jesus, and Christology 9

The New Challenges of Historical Theology 10

Religionswissenschaft 11

The Eschatological Interpretation of Weiss and Schweitzer 12
The Religionsgeschichtliche Schule 13 Form Criticism 15

Ernst Troeltsch 17

Historicism, the Science of Religion, and Theology 19 The Absoluteness of Christianity 20
What Does "Essence of Christianity" Mean? 23 The Historical Jesus, Faith, and Christology 25

Chapter Two American Empirical and Naturalistic Theology 33

Introduction 34

Radical Empiricism and Religion: William James	34
Experience, Pragmatism, and the "Will to Believe"	35
"The Varieties of Religious Experience": An Empirical Exploration	38
American Empirical Theology: Douglas Clyde Macintosh	42
Macintosh's Method	42
Normative Theology and Christian Belief	45
American Theological Modernism and Naturalism: Henry Nelson Wieman	47
Background: John Dewey and the Chicago School	47
Henry Nelson Wieman	48

Chapter Three

The Dialectical Theology: Karl Barth, Emil Brunner, and Friedrich Gogarten 62

The Beginnings of Dialectical Theology	63
Liberal Theology: History and Interpretation	67
Major Themes in Karl Barth's Theology of the Word of God	71
The Dialectical Method	71
God as Wholly Other	72
The Strange World of the Bible	73
The Breakdown of the Dialectical Theology	75
Emil Brunner	77
Anthropology and the Apologetic Task	79
Revelation as Encounter and Truth	80
Friedrich Gogarten	84
The Christian Understanding of the World and Secularization	85
The Historicizing of Human Existence	88
Demythologizing and History	89

Chapter Four

The Theologies of Karl Barth and Dietrich Bonhoeffer 96

Karl Barth	97
The Development of Karl Barth's Theology	97
"Political Theology": Barth and the Question of a Christian Social Ethics	99
The Major Themes in Barth's Church Dogmatics	104
The Reception and Critique of Barth's Theology	109
Dietrich Bonhoeffer	111
Bonhoeffer's Early Writings and the Relationship with Karl Barth	113
The Christological Concentration	116
Discipleship and Ethics	119
The World Come of Age and a Religionless Christianity	124
Bonhoeffer's Legacy	127

Chapter Five Christian Existentialism 133

Key Existentialist Themes	134
Existence Precedes Essence	134
The Critique of Rational Objectivity	135
Authentic and Inauthentic Existence	136
Gabriel Marcel	138
Paul Tillich	140
The Existential Starting Point	141
The Method of Correlation	143
Humanity's Existential Situation	143
Being, God, and Being-Itself	146
Existence and the New Being in Jesus as the Christ	147
The Spirit's Presence and Morality	151
Rudolf Bultmann	153
God's Action and Faith	155
Demythologizing the New Testament	157
Conclusion	161

Chapter Six Christian Realism: A Post-Liberal American Theology 165

Introduction	165
H. Richard Niebuhr	167
Human Faith and Faith in God	169
The Confessional Method: Inner and Outer History	171
Reinhold Niebuhr	175
The Nature of the Self	177
The Dramas of History	181
Love, Justice, and Power	186

Chapter Seven The New Theology and Transcendental Thomism 197 Francis Schüssler Fiorenza

The Background and Context of the Nouvelle Théologie	198
Neo-Scholasticism as a Phenomenon of Modernity	198
Pierre Rousselot	200
Joseph Maréchal and Modern Philosophy	200
Critical Issues	202
Henri de Lubac and the Nouvelle Théologie	202
The Supernatural	203
Interpretation of the Senses of Scripture	204
Theological Conflict	205

Karl Rahner 205
 Spirit in the World and Hearers of the Word 207
 The Religious Dimension of Human Experience 208
The Supernatural Existential 209 Revelation as Transcendental and as Categorical 210
 Rahner's Theological Method 211 The Symbol 212 Critical Issues 213

Bernard Lonergan 214
 Critical Realism 214 A New Ideal of Knowledge 216 The Question of God 217
 Method in Theology: Functional Specialties 218 Conversion 219
 Religion and Theology 220 Critical Issues 220

Edward Schillebeeckx 221
 Sacramental Theology 222 Jesus as Eschatological Prophet 223
 Method of Correlation 224 The Conflict over Ministry 225 Critical Issues 227

Conclusion 227

Chapter Eight
Vatican II and the Aggiornamento of Roman Catholic Theology 233
Francis Schüssler Fiorenza

Yves Congar 233
 True Reform and the Resources of the Tradition 234 The Role of the Laity and France's Catholic Action Movement 235 Church as Communio 235

John XXIII 236

Vatican II 237
 Vatican II's Understanding of the Church 238 The Church and the Liturgy 240
 The Tensions and Compromises in the Understanding of the Church 240
 The Church and Its Relation to the World 242 Biblical Historical Criticism 244
 Religious Pluralism, Freedom, and Ecumenism 245

Hans Küng 247
 Justification and the Dialogue with Karl Barth 247
 Küng's Interpretation of Vatican II 248
 Structures of the Church 249 On Being a Christian 249
 Papal Infallibility, Birth Control, and Religious Affirmations 250
 Philosophical Theology and Comparative Religion 251 Critical Issues 252

John Courtney Murray and Religious Freedom 252
 The Two Contrasting Views 254 Murray's Contribution 255

Hans von Balthasar 256
 Analogy of Being and Karl Barth 257 Theological Aesthetics 258
 From Theo-Drama to Theo-Logic 259 Critical Issues 260

Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger	260
From Church as People of God to Church as Body of Christ	261
The Optimism and Modernism of Vatican II	261
Theology of the Cross or Theology of Incarnation	262
Religious Pluralism and Moral Relativism	263
Conclusion: The Aftermath of Vatican II	264

Chapter Nine

Political Theology and Latin American Liberation Theologies 273

Francis Schüssler Fiorenza

Political Theology	273
The Post–World War II Context	274
Interpretation of the Situation: The Privatization of Religion	275
The Critique of a Dominant Existential Theology	276
The Emphasis on Eschatology	277
Johann Metz	278
Political Theology as Fundamental Theology	279
The Critique of Bourgeois Religion	280
The Memory of Suffering and the Holocaust	281
Assessment: Political without Politics	282
Jürgen Moltmann	283
Promise and Hope	283
The Crucified God and the Doctrine of the Trinity	284
Critical Issues	287
Latin American Liberation Theology	288
The Context: From Development to Liberation	288
Interpretation of the Situation: Dependency	289
Previous Theology	290
Eschatology	291
Gustavo Gutiérrez	292
Gutiérrez's Interpretation of the Historical Jesus	292
The Nature of the Church	293
The Meaning of Liberation and Salvation	294
Questions	294
Juan Luis Segundo	295
Faith and Ideology	295
The Hermeneutical Circle	297
A Critical Question: The Difference from Feminist Theology	297
Leonardo Boff	298
The Church as Sacrament of the Spirit	298
Social Analysis and the Church	299
Future Directions in Liberation Theology	300
Conclusion	300

Chapter Ten Process Theology 309

Background 309

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin 310

Henri Bergson 312

Alfred North Whitehead 312

Charles Hartshorne 316

Schubert Ogden 320

The Task of Christian Theology 321 Ogden's Later Reflections on Analogy, the Normative Christian Witness, and a Christology of Liberation 323

John B. Cobb, Jr. 327

The God Who Calls and Human Possibility 328 Christ and Creative Transformation 332
Theology and "Praxis": Ecological Theology as Example 333

Conclusion 335

Chapter Eleven History and Hermeneutics 341

Francis Schüssler Fiorenza

Wolfhart Pannenberg 342

Revelation as History 342 The Resurrection of Jesus Christ: Historical and Retroactive 343
Theology as an Intellectual Discipline 345 Anthropology as Fundamental Theology 346
Metaphysics and Systematic Theology 347 Critical Issues: The Rationality of Faith 348

Hans-Georg Gadamer 349

The Critique of Historicism and Romanticism 350 Recasting the Hermeneutical Circle 351
Hermeneutics of Belonging: Key Concepts 352 Self-Understanding, the New Testament, and Marburg Theology 353 Critical Issues: Gadamer in Dialogue and Confrontation 354

Paul Ricoeur 357

Phenomenology and the Symbols of Evil 358 The Hermeneutical Turn: From Symbol to Metaphor 359
Hermeneutics of Objectification: Key Concepts 360 Religious Language and Forms of Discourse 361
Narrative and Hermeneutics 362 Critical Issues 363

David Tracy 363

Theological Method and Fundamental Theology 363 The Method of Correlation and Revisionist Theology 364 Publics and Modes of Argument 366 The Theological Reception of Hermeneutical Theory 367 Religion and Ambiguity 368 Critical Issues 368

	Hans Frei	369
	The Critique of Modern Historical Criticism	370
	Narrative and Identity	372
Against Correlation Theology	373
	Redescription and Thick Description	374
	Critical Issues	375
	Conclusion	376

Chapter Twelve

Evangelical Theology 387

Background 387

The Fundamentalist Defense of the Faith 388

The “New Evangelicalism” 390

Gerrit Cornelius Berkouwer 393

	Co-Relationship	394		Holy Scripture	395
The Doctrine of Providence, Election, and Reprobation	397		The Last Things and Universalism	399

Carl F. H. Henry 401

The Bible, Revelation, and Authority 402

New Theological Soundings 408

Chapter Thirteen

Feminist Theology 417

Sarah Coakley

Introduction: The Context of Twentieth-Century Feminist Theology 417

Mary Daly: The Move to “Post-Christian” Feminist Theology 419

Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza:
Jesus and the “Discipleship of Equals” 423

Sallie McFague: Reconceiving God and Gender 428

Luce Irigaray: Feminist Philosophy and the Critique of Freud 433

Conclusion: “Difference” in Feminist Theology 437

Chapter Fourteen
Black Theology in America 443
James H. Evans, Jr.

Martin Luther King, Jr. and the Civil Rights Movement in the United States 443

The Contexts of Black Theology in America 448

The Historical Context 448 The Cultural Context 450

The Social Context 451 The Black Manifesto 453

James H. Cone's Black Theology of Liberation 456

The Central Affirmations of Cone's Black Theology of Liberation 456

Black Womanist Theology:

Texts, Traditions, and Trajectories 460

Texts: Womanist Interpretations of the Bible 461

Traditions: The Meaning of Jesus Christ in Womanist Theology 462

Trajectories: Womanist Moral and Ethical Thought 464

Chapter Fifteen
Theology of Religions:
Christian Responses to Other Faiths 469

Introduction 469

Exclusivism 471

Roman Catholic Positions 475

Views Prior to Vatican II 475 The Inclusive Way of Karl Rahner 476

Theological Defenses of Religious Pluralism 479

Stanley Samartha 480 Wilfred Cantwell Smith 481 John Hick 484

Illustrations of the New Christian
Interreligious Dialogue 487

Chapter Sixteen
Christian Thought at the End of the Twentieth Century 493

The Modern and the Postmodern 494

Gordon D. Kaufman: Theology as Imaginative Construction 495

Radical and Conservative Postmodern Theologies:

Thomas J. J. Altizer, Mark C. Taylor,
 and Jean-Luc Marion 500

Thomas J. J. Altizer 500 Mark C. Taylor 503
Jean-Luc Marion: A Conservative Postmodern Theology 504

Reformed Epistemology: The Critique of Modern Foundationalism and Evidentialism 506

Alvin Plantinga 507 Nicholas Wolterstorff 509

The Wittgensteinian Trajectory 511

Ludwig Wittgenstein 511 The Wittgensteinians 514

Postliberal Theology 519

George Lindbeck 520 Stanley Hauerwas 523

Conclusion 526

Acknowledgments 535

Index 537