

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Acknowledgments | vii |
| 1. The Rhetoric of Empire: Introduction | 1 |
| Empire Studies as a New Field in Biblical Studies | 2 |
| A Radical Democratic Ethos | 7 |
| A Critical Political Feminist Hermeneutics | 16 |
| Situating the Argument of This Book | 22 |
| 2. The Power of Scripture and the Rhetoric of Empire | 35 |
| Empire as the Context of Scripture Today | 36 |
| Reshaping Biblical The*logical Studies | 49 |
| 3. Empire and Ekklēsia | 69 |
| A Radical Democratic Imagination: The Ekklēsia of Wo/men | 70 |
| Debating Paul in the Ekklēsia of Wo/men | 82 |
| 4. Toward a Critical Feminist Decolonizing Interpretation | 111 |
| Postcolonial Criticism and Feminist Criticism | 113 |
| A Decolonizing Interpretation of the Book of Revelation | 130 |
| 5. Empire and the Rhetoric of Subordination | 149 |
| The Ethos of Kyriarchy: Intersecting Discourses of Domination | 151 |
| A Detoxifying/Decolonizing Reading of 1 Peter | 162 |
| 6. The Rhetoric of Empire and G*d-Talk: Decolonizing the Divine | 195 |
| Feminist Critique of Androcentric G*d Language | 199 |
| Kyriocentric G*d Language: The Language of Empire | 207 |
| 7. Transforming Biblical Studies | 239 |
| The Discipline of Biblical Studies | 241 |
| Transforming Biblical Studies | 250 |
| Selected Bibliography | 267 |