

Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Editor's Foreword | vii |
| Preface | ix |
| 1 The Social History Method | 1 |
| Social History as Discipline and as Method | 1 |
| The History of Events and "the Long Term" | 2 |
| A Description of Social History | 4 |
| History of Scholarship | 5 |
| Part One | |
| METHODS FOR STUDYING THE SOCIAL HISTORY OF ISRAEL | |
| 2 Environment as Living Space | 15 |
| The Geographical Environment | 15 |
| The Historical Environment | 17 |
| 3 Material Remains | 19 |
| Archaeology: Artifacts and Interpretation | 20 |
| Epigraphic Material from Israel and Its Environment | 22 |
| 4 The Texts of the Hebrew Bible | 24 |
| The Historical Reliability of the Biblical Accounts | 25 |
| Fiction and Milieu | 26 |
| Intentional and Unintentional Tradition | 27 |
| Norm and Reality | 28 |
| Dating Biblical Texts | 30 |
| 5 In Search of Analogies | 33 |
| Societies in Israel's Environment | 34 |
| Ethnology: From Empirical Studies to Theory | 34 |
| Sociological Categories | 35 |

| Part Two THE EPOCHS OF ISRAEL'S SOCIAL HISTORY | |
|---|------------|
| 6 Israel's Origins as a Kinship-Based Society | 40 |
| The Beginnings of Something Called Israel | 41 |
| Structures of Kinship-Based Societies | 51 |
| 7 Israel and Judah: From Early Statehood to Full Development | 63 |
| From Initial Statehood to the Middle of the Eighth Century | 64 |
| The Beginnings of a State | 72 |
| Society and State under Monarchical Rule | 78 |
| Profiles of Monarchy in Israel and Judah | 91 |
| 8 The Formation of an Ancient Class Society | 103 |
| The Political Background from the Eighth to the Sixth Century | 104 |
| Israel and Judah as an Ancient Class Society | 108 |
| 9 Exiles and Their Consequences | 118 |
| From Nebuchadnezzar to Cyrus | 119 |
| Judah under Babylonian Rule | 120 |
| Israel in Exile | 123 |
| 10 Provincial Society under Persia | 128 |
| From Cyrus to Alexander | 129 |
| Society and State in Judah and Samaria in the Persian Period | 133 |
| Temple and Torah | 143 |
| Life in the Diaspora | 151 |
| Yehud, Samaria, Israel: A Provincial Society in the Persian Period | 153 |
| 11 The Jewish Ethnos in the Hellenistic Age | 158 |
| From Alexander the Great to the Hasmoneans | 159 |
| Changes in Society and State | 161 |
| Hellenistic Governance Structures | 165 |
| The Many Forms of "Israel" | 170 |
| 12 Conclusion | 176 |
| Trans-epochal Features of Israel's Social History | 176 |
| Israel's Identity | 177 |
| Prospect: The Theological Relevance of Social History | 178 |
| Abbreviations | 180 |
| Notes | 185 |
| Glossary | 235 |
| Bibliography | 241 |
| Index of selected topics | 263 |
| Index of selected biblical passages | 266 |