

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
Chapter 1. The Context of Asian American Theology	1
Two Dimensions of the Asian American Experience	1
Liminality and Its Creative Possibilities	5
The Marginalization of Asian Americans	11
The Dual Liminality and Marginalization of Asian American Women	22
The Strangers from a Different Shore	28
Liminality in the Condition of Marginalization	31
Chapter 2. God's Strategic Alliance with the Liminal and Marginalized	35
Galilee as the Place of Jesus' Ministry and Galileans as His First Followers	38
The Liminality of Galilee and Galileans	43
The Marginalization of Galilee and Galileans	47

Chapter 3. God and Liminality	51
God's End in Creation	52
Liminality in God	54
The Incarnation and Liminality	59
Chapter 4. The Way of the Liminal Jesus as the Christ	63
Leaving Home: Jesus' Appropriation of Liminality	63
Jesus' Exercise of the Creative Potentials of His Liminality	68
The Death of Jesus Christ	79
The Resurrection of the Crucified Jesus	83
The Exaltation of Jesus Christ	86
Chapter 5. Redemption in Asian American Context	89
The Meaning of Atonement	89
Believers' Response to and Participation in Atonement	97
Justification of the Marginalized	101
Repentance	104
Chapter 6. Asian American Identity and the Christian Faith	109
Asian American Identity in a Postmodern and Postcolonial Context	109
Working on Asian American Identity	112
Faith and Identity	117
Identity and Narrative	119
Chapter 7. Asian American Church	123
Church as Communitas and Structure	124
Asian American Church as Refuge and Liminal Space	127
The Prophetic Ministry of Asian American Churches	132
Women and the Asian American Church	138
Marks of the Church	141

Chapter 8. The New Liminality and Asian American Discipleship	147
Openness to the New	149
Communitas with Others	151
Resistance and the “Happiness That Forgets Nothing”	154
Chapter 9. Liminality and Reconciliation	161
The Task of Reconciliation	161
The Role of Liminality in Reconciliation	164
Chapter 10. A New Heaven and a New Earth	173
Conclusion	179
Notes	183
Index	197