

Contents

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Introduction  | ix |
|    |           |
| Chapter One   |           |
| The Primacy of the Gospel                           | 1  |
| Augustinian Critique of Epistemology                       | 1         |
| The Primacy of the Gospel                                  | 7         |
| Natural Theology? Divine Simplicity?                       | 16        |
| Kataphatic Theology  | 22        |
|    |           |
| Chapter Two   |           |
| From Resurrection Kerygma to Gospel Narrative       | 25 |
| The Resurrection of the Crucified as Hermeneutic           | 26        |
| The Chief Question: Resurrection as the Spirit's Narration | 29        |
| Resurrection as Event in the Life of God                   | 31        |
| Resurrection as Possibility in the Life of the World       | 35        |
| Resurrection as Reality in the Life of the World           | 41        |
| Resurrection's Retroactive Causality                       | 48        |
| Bultmann's Objection                                       | 49        |
| The Gospel as Promissory Narrative                         | 60        |
|    |           |
| Chapter Three                                       |           |
| The Scriptures' Emergence as the Church's Canon     | 69 |
| Jesus—New and Living Temple                                | 70        |
| The Johannine Bridge                                       | 72        |
| Critique of Modern Johannine Criticism                     | 76        |
| Käsemann's Dissent   | 81        |
| Hoskyns's Theological Interpretation of John               | 87        |
| The Johannine Theology of the Martyr                       | 92        |
| Ignatius, Polycarp, and the Martyrs' Canon                 | 96        |
| The Knowledge of God in the New Testament                  | 106       |

Chapter Four

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| The Trinitarian Rule of Faith           | 109 |
| Paul as Theologian                             | 110        |
| Paul's "Canon" of Faith (Galatians 6:16)       | 114        |
| Early Christian Dogma in the Pastoral Epistles | 119        |
| Martyrological Ethos in the Pastoral Epistles  | 124        |
| Christian "Atheism" in Justin Martyr           | 128        |
| Justin against Gnosticism                      | 133        |
| Irenaeus and the Theology of the Martyrs       | 137        |
| The First Dogmatics                            | 140        |
| The Economy of God                             | 145        |
| The Rule of Faith and the Trinity              | 152        |

Chapter Five

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| The Confrontation of Biblical and Philosophical Monotheism               | 159 |
| The Problem of Christianity and Platonism                                       | 160        |
| Overview of Trinitarian Doctrine and Trinitarian Errors                         | 161        |
| Two Kinds of Monotheism: The Living God of Radical, or Exclusive,Monotheism | 167        |
| Two Kinds of Monotheism: Divine Simplicity                                      | 173        |
| Eternal Generation  | 179        |
| Systematic Theology as Systematic Apologetics                                   | 184        |
| Arius as Consistent Platonist   | 193        |

Chapter Six

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| The Holy Trinity as the Eternal Life                    | 201 |
| The Martyriological Background                                 | 202        |
| The Creed at Nicea 325   | 203        |
| Theology of Redemption   | 212        |
| Lord and Giver of Life   | 222        |
| The Homoiousions and the Homoousions             | 223        |
| The Failure of Biblicism                                       | 228        |
| The Trinitarian Theology of the Cappadocians                   | 231        |
| Worshipped and Glorified, Together with the Father and the Son | 233        |

Postscript

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| The "Impassible Passibility" of the Trinity | 237 |
|--|------------|

|              |     |
|--------------|-----|
| Notes | 241 |
|--------------|-----|

|              |     |
|--------------|-----|
| Index | 275 |
|--------------|-----|