

CONTENTS

Foreword	ix
John Hick
General Introduction	xi

PART 1

Religion and Conflict: Terror, War, and Peace

Introduction	1
Religion and Terror: A Post-9/11 Analysis	3
Stephen Healey
Religion, Identity, and Violence	13
Rabbi David Rosen
The Bhagavadgītā and War: Some Early Anticipations of the Gandhian Interpretation of the Bhagavadgītā	23
Arvind Sharma
The Violent Bear It Away: Christian Reflections on Just War	27
William R. O'Neill
A Jain Perspective on Nonviolence and Warfare	33
Padmanabh S. Jaini
The Approach of Muslim Turks to Religious Terror	43
Ramazan Bicer
The Concept of Peace and Security in Islam	53
Muhammad Hammad Lakhvi
Perspectives on the Conflict in the Middle East	56
Rabbi Dow Marmur, Seyyed Hossein Nasr, Gregory Baum, Karen Armstrong

Contents

The Golden Rule and World Peace Patricia A. Keefe	70
World Religions and World Peace: Toward a New Partnership Brian D. Lepard	75

PART 2

Religion and Human Rights: The Worth of Persons

Introduction	81
Religion and an Implicit Fundamental Human Right James Kellenberger	83
Religion and Human Rights Shirin Ebadi	89
What Gives a Person Worth?: A Zoroastrian View Nikan H. Khatibi	95
Religion, Violence, and Human Rights: A Hindu Perspective Arvind Sharma	97
Confucian Contributions to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights: A Historical and Philosophical Perspective Sumner B. Twiss	102
A Bahá'í Perspective on the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the World's Religions Brian D. Lepard	115
World's Religions, Human Rights, and Same-Sex Marriage Brent Hawkes, Janet Epp Buckingham, Douglas Elliott, Margaret Somerville	118
Religion and Human Rights: A Historical and Contemporary Assessment Krishna Kanth Tigiripalli, Lalitha Kumari Kadarla	136

PART 3

Religion and Women: Respecting Gender

Introduction	143
Women in World Religions: Discrimination, Liberation, and Backlash Rosemary Radford Ruether	145
Women and Human Rights: The Status of Women in the Smṛti Texts of Hinduism Abha Singh	152
Women's Interfaith Initiatives in the United States after 9/11 Kathryn Lohre	161
Turning War Inside Out: New Perspectives for the Nuclear Age Marcia Sichel	167

PART 4
Religion and the Environment: Science and Ethics

Introduction	171
Religion and Science	173
Huston Smith
Incarnation and the Environment	178
Mary Ann Buckley
Eco-Justice Ethics: A Brief Overview	182
Dieter T. Hessel

PART 5
Religion and Diversity: Embracing Pluralism

Introduction	189
Pluralism as a Way of Dealing with Religious Diversity	191
Caitlin Crowley
Orientalist Feminism and Islamophobia/Iranophobia	194
Roksana Bahramitash
Along a Path Less Traveled: A Plurality of Religious Ultimates?	198
Arvind Sharma
Religion Is About How You Behave: The Essential Virtue Is Compassion	203
Karen Armstrong
Religious Tolerance and Peace-Building in a World of Diversity	206
Issa Kirarira

PART 6
Religion and Transformation: Interreligious Dialogue

Introduction	213
Promotion of Interreligious Dialogue	215
Mihai Valentin Vladimirescu
Interreligious Dialogue Attentive to Western Enlightenment	222
Gregory Baum
Movement and Institution: Necessary Elements of Sustaining the Interfaith Vision	230
David A. Leslie
Buddhism Meets Hinduism: Interaction and Influence in India	234
Arvind Sharma
Fundamentalism and Interfaith Dialogue	241
Harvey Cox Jr.

Contents

Toward a Culture of Peace Fabrice Blée	251
--------------------------------------------------	-----

PART 7

Religion and the Twenty-First Century: Toward a Global Spirituality

Introduction	257
Religion Is Central to Human Affairs: Part of the Problem, Part of the Solution Didiji	259
Redefining Humanity and Civilization Nadine Sultana d’Osman Han	265
Religion in an Age of Anxiety Seyyed Hossein Nasr	273
Religion and Media Satguru Bodhinatha Veylanswami	284
Lessons from Hinduism for the World after 9/11 Ashok Vohra	296
The Future of Mankind: The Bhagavadgītā Doctrine T. N. Achuta Rao	303
This Magdalene Moment Joanna Manning	310
CaoDai: A Way to Harmony Hum D. Bui	315
The Glory of the Divine Feminine Her Holiness Sai Maa Lakshmi Devi	318
Religion, Fundamental Questions, and Human Society Vinesh Saxena	321
Beyond Religion: A Holistic Spirituality Mabel Aranha	324

APPENDICES

Primary Documents

1. United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights—December 10, 1948	333
2. Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the World’s Religions— December 10, 1949	337
Notes	341
Glossary	363
Index	367