
Contents

Foreword	xv
Preface	xix
Chapter One. Facing Reality	1
“It Doesn’t Happen Here!” ♦ When Appropriate Training Has Not Occurred ♦ The Importance of Collaboration ♦ Why Do Victims-Survivors Remain with Their Offenders? ♦ Why Are Most Abusers Male? ♦ Rationalization for Violent Behavior ♦ Intimate Partner Violence in GLBT Communities ♦ Effects of Economic Downturn on Domestic Violence ♦ Separating Fact from Myth ♦ Conclusion ♦ Questions for Discussion

Chapter Two. Preparing to Serve	23
A Survivor and Her Pastor Reflect ♦ Why Domestic Violence Awareness Training Is Essential ♦ Domestic Violence Awareness Training: Sample of an Eight-Hour Session ♦ Why Partnerships Are Essential ♦ Final Preparation ♦ Conclusion ♦ Questions for Discussion
Chapter Three. Once an Abuser, Always an Abuser? A Further Exploration	49
Edgar's Story, Spring 1998 ♦ Edgar's Reflections, Spring 2010 ♦ Tactics Used by Batterers ♦ Can Abusive Men Change? ♦ Providing Pastoral Care to Batterers ♦ Conclusion ♦ Questions for Discussion
Chapter Four. When the Abuser Is a Male Spiritual Leader	77
Alison's Story ♦ Joyce's Story ♦ Hope's Story ♦ What Can Be Learned from These Stories? ♦ Conclusion ♦ Questions for Discussion
Chapter Five. Thorny Still: The Question of Forgiveness	103
Complexities of Forgiveness ♦ What Is Forgiveness— and What Is It Not? ♦ Forgiveness: Perspectives from Two Survivors ♦ Forgiveness: After the Abuse ♦ How Spiritual Leaders Can Help Survivors Struggling with Forgiveness ♦ Conclusion ♦ Questions for Discussion

Chapter Six. Goals and Best Approaches	131
Responding to Victims-Survivors ♦ Responding to Batterers ♦ Responding When the Abuser Is a Male Spiritual Leader ♦ Biblical and Theological Perspectives ♦ Conclusion ♦ Questions for Discussion
Acknowledgments	159
Appendix A: Checklists	161
Appendix B: Selected Resources	163
Appendix C: Resources	167
Notes	181