

CONTENTS

Contributors	ix
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction: Why New Testament Textual Criticism Matters: A Non-Critic's Perspective	1
Robert B. Stewart
1. The Textual Reliability of the New Testament: A Dialogue	13
Bart D. Ehrman and Daniel B. Wallace
2. Text and Transmission in the Second Century	61
Michael W. Holmes
3. The Necessity of a Theology of Scripture	81
Dale B. Martin
4. What Is the Text of the New Testament?	95
David Parker
5. Who Changed the Text and Why? Probable, Possible, and Unlikely Explanations	105
William Warren
6. Assessing the Stability of the Transmitted Texts of the New Testament and the Shepherd of Hermas	125
K. Martin Heide

7. Textual Criticism and Textual Confidence: How Reliable Is Scripture?	161
Craig A. Evans
8. Authors or Preservers? Scribal Culture and the Theology of Scriptures	173
Sylvie T. Raquel
Notes	187
Subject Index	217
Scripture Index	219