

Contents

1: The Stories and the Books 12

The story 13
Escape from Egypt 14
National decline 16
Understanding the story 17
The story and the faith 21
Literary style 26
History 26
Law 26
Poetry 26
Stories 26
Visions 26
Liturgical materials 27
Philosophy and ethics 27
Faith stories 27
Organization and structure 27
The Law 28
The Prophets 28
The Writings 30

2: The Founding of a Nation 34

National identity 36
The founders 38
Early expressions of faith 43
The birth of the nation 44
The exodus 46
The covenant 49
To the Promised Land 52

3: New People in an Old Land 56

Canaan and its history 56
The emergence of Israel 59
Armed struggle 61
Peaceful infiltration 62
Social revolution 63
The judges 67

4: “A King Like Other Nations” 76

Samuel and the ark 77
Saul 78
David 83
David’s rise to power 84
A new king and new ways 86
Old ways and new ideas 87
Solomon 88
The empire 88
Alliances 89
The Temple 90
Arts and science 94
Economic realities 94
After Solomon 95
Society and religion 96
The psalms 96
Wisdom 99

5: Two Kingdoms 106

A kingdom divided 106
Back to the old ways 106
Political changes 107
Religious diversity 112

New alliances 115
 Prosperity again 115
 Decay and collapse 117
 Growing insecurity 121

New prosperity and false security 127
 National revival 127
 Assyria on the move 131

6: Judah and Jerusalem 137

Danger and uncertainty 137
 False confidence 141
 Reform in Jerusalem 142
 The Assyrians move in 144
 Assyria's final fling 144
 Reform and renewal 145
 A lost book 146
 The Babylonians 147

Jeremiah and the fall of Jerusalem 152
 False confidence 153
 The end is coming 153
 Dark days in Jerusalem 154

7: Dashed Hopes and New Horizons 165

Dealing with disaster 166
 By the rivers of Babylon 168
 A new beginning 178
 Back to Jerusalem 183
 Confusion and despair 186
 Renewing the covenant 186
 Building the walls 187
 Handing on the Law 188

8: The Challenge of a New Age 196

A new empire 198
 Jews and Greeks 200
 Emerging tensions 201
 National pride and religious zeal 202
 Keeping the faith 204
 Esther 205
 Judith 207

Tobit 207
 The end of the story 214

9: The Living God 216

Who is God? 216
 God is invisible 218
 God and the forces of nature 219
 God and the philosophers 220
 What is God like? 221
 An active God 221
 Finding God in later history 224
 A personal God 226
 Words for describing God 227
 When God is absent 234
 Personal alienation 234
 National despair 235
 How can God be known? 239
 God's grace 239
 God's word 239

10: God and the World 242

Discovering God in nature and history 242
 The stories of Genesis 246
 The stories as literature 249
 The message of the stories 252
 The meaning of human life 259
 In relation to the earth 259
 In relation to God 260
 In relation to other people 260
 Broken relationships and new beginnings 261
 The root of the problem 262
 Searching for answers 264

11: Living as the People of God 267

Belief and behaviour 267
 Discovering God's will through wisdom 270
 Understanding "wisdom" 270
 Wisdom in practice 272

Discovering God's will in the Law 278
The Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1–17) 279

The book of the covenant (Exodus 20:22 – 23:33) 279

Deuteronomy 279

Laws about worship 280

From theory to practice 280

Criminal law 281

Civil law 282

Family law 282

Social law 283

Explaining God's will 285

The Old Testament ethic is theological 286

The Old Testament ethic is dynamic 286

The Old Testament ethic is social 287

The Old Testament ethic is personal 287

12: Worship 293

Worshipping a holy God 293

God is infinite 293

God is good 296

God is love 296

Places of worship 297

The tabernacle, or "tent of Yahweh's presence" 298

Local sanctuaries 301

The Temple 302

The synagogue 305

The character of worship 307

Singing and music 311

Prayer 311

Dance and drama 312

Sacrifice 314

Times for worship 320

The sabbath day 320

The Passover 320

The harvest festivals 322

13: From Hebrew Bible to Old Testament 329

Questions of belief 330

Searching for solutions 330

Making connections 336

Questions of behaviour 339

Revisiting history 342

Moral tensions 342

Texts and readers 343

Glimpses of a different future 346

A new covenant 347

A messiah 347

A new world 348

Special Articles

Chapter 1

How many books are in the Old Testament? 24

Archaeology and the Old Testament 31

Chapter 2

Were Abraham and Sarah and their family real people? 40

The ark of the covenant 50

The form of the covenant 51

Dating the exodus and conquest 53

Chapter 3

"Canaanites and Israelites" 65

Life in the days of the judges 69

Israel and the religion of Canaan 72

Editing the stories 74

Chapter 4

"Has even Saul become a prophet?" 79

Israel becomes a state 82

The stories about David and Solomon 93

The psalms and Israel's worship 98

The wisdom books 103

Chapter 5

Elijah and the religion of Ba'al 118

Everyday life in Israel and Judah 123

The book of Amos 129

The Assyrians 132

Hosea and the fall of Samaria 134

Dating the Old Testament story 136

Chapter 6

Three prophets 150

Other traditions related to Jeremiah 156
The Lachish Letters 157
Prophets and prophecy 159
Creativity and culture 162

Chapter 7

The book of Lamentations 167
Ezekiel 171
The Pentateuch 174
Isaiah of Babylon 180
Haggai and Zechariah 185
Two dissidents 190
The work of the Chronicler 192
Exiles in Egypt 194

Chapter 8

The book of Daniel and the Maccabean crisis
209
The books of the Maccabees 215

Chapter 9

God's name 231
Wrestling with a hidden God 237

Chapter 10

Creation stories in context 253
Looking to the future 265

Chapter 11

Wisdom and faith 276
The administration of justice 289
Individuals and the community 291

Chapter 12

Understanding the psalms 309
Understanding sacrifice 318
Kings, priests and prophets in worship 324

Other Resources on the Old
Testament 375

Glossary 350

Index 379

Acknowledgments