

Table of Contents

Editor's Foreword

Preface

Abbreviations

1. Introduction

What Kind of God?

Anthropomorphic Metaphor

2. God in Old Testament Theology

A Metaphoric Shift

Convergence and Pluralism

Directions

Story and Generalization

The Old Testament God and Contemporary Issues

3. God and World: Basic Perspectives

God's Relationship to the World Is Real and Has Integrity

God is Internally Related to the World

4. God and World: Foreknowledge

The Divine Perhaps

The Divine If

The Divine Consultation

The Divine Question

5. God and World: Presence and Power

Intensifications of the Divine Presence

Divine Presence and Divine Absence

Divine Freedom and Accessibility

Immanence and Transcendence

Presence, Relationship, and Power

6. God in Human Form

Theophany

Visible Words

Meteorological Phenomena

In Human Form

Divine Vulnerability

The Human Form of God

7. God Suffers Because

A Broken Relationship

The Memory of God

The Future of God
Summary

8. God Suffers With

Rooted in Israel's Experience

God as Mourner

Summary

9. God Suffers For

God's Self-Giving

Divine Humiliation

Summary

10. Prophet, Theophany, and the Suffering of God

Prophet and Messenger

The Prophet's Suffering Because of Being Rejected

The Prophet's Suffering With the People

The Prophet's Suffering For the People

Notes

Indexes