

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments

Introduction

THE CONTEXT

1. The Ecological Crisis

A Lament for the Planet

The Planetary Agenda

One Theologian's Response: The Model of the Body

A Meditation on the Body

COSMOLOGY

2. The Organic Model

The Classic Organic Model

The Common Creation Story

Embodied Knowing, Embodied Doing

Ecological Unity

METHODOLOGY

3. A Theology of Nature

Theology and the Planetary Agenda

Theology of Nature: Remythologizing Christian Doctrine

A Reading of Postmodern Science: Organism or Mechanism

ANTHROPOLOGY

4. At Home on the Earth

Our Place in the scheme of Things

Sin: The Refusal to Accept Our Place

THEOLOGY

5. God and the World

A Meditation on Exodus 33:23b

Major Models of God and the World

Spirit and Body

Creation: Production, Procreation, or Procreation-Emanation?

CHRISTOLOGY

6. The Body of God

The Shape of the Body: The Christic Paradigm

The Scope of the Body: The Cosmic Christ

Face, Body, and Spirit: Some Reflections on the Trinity

ESCHATOLOGY

7. A New Shape for Humanity

Eschatology: The Hope for a New Creation

Ethics: A New Lens for Seeing

Ecclesia: A Sign of the New Creation

Some Afterthoughts

Notes

Name Index

Subject Index