

Table of Contents

Translator's Preface
Foreword
Sources of Illustrations

1. At the Wartburg
  1. Conflicts with Catholic Opponents
  2. The Wartburg Postil
  3. On Confession
  4. Religious Vows
  5. Reorganization of the Mass and the Unrest in Wittenberg
  6. Translating the New and Old Testaments

2. The Preacher of Wittenberg (1522-24)
  1. The Invocavit Sermons and Dealing with the Situation in Wittenberg
  2. Efforts at Electing Evangelical Preachers and Pastors
  3. Luther and the Bohemians
  4. Contacts with the Reformation Movement beyond Electoral Saxony
  5. Conflicts with Opponents Holding the Old Faith
  6. Marriage and Marriage Matters
  7. Monks and Nuns
  8. The University
  9. Government and Politics
  10. New Orders of Worship

3. Prophets, Enthusiasts, Iconoclasts, Fanatics, and the Peasants' War
  1. The School
  2. On Trade and Usury
  3. Thomas Müntzer
  4. Andreas (Bodenstein von) Karlstadt
  5. The Peasant's War

4. Marriage, Home, and Family (1525-30)
  1. Preliminary History
  2. Marriage
  3. Home Life and the Growing Family
  4. Illness

5. The Conflict with Erasmus of Rotterdam over Free Will
  1. Erasmus Writes against Luther
  2. Luther's Reply: De Servo Arbitrio
  3. Erasmus's Defense

6. Reform of the University and Academic Activity (1524-30)
  1. Reform of the University
  2. Luther's Lectures (1523-30)

7. Reorganization of the Church and Pastoral Activity
  1. Shaping the Worship Service
  2. The Visitation
  3. The Catechisms
  4. On Marriage Matters
  5. Pastoral Activity in Wittenberg and the Crisis There

8. The Conflict over the Lord's Supper and Baptism (1525-29)
  1. New Demands (1525)
  2. Temporizing in the Background (1526)
  3. That These Words of Christ "This is My Body" etc., Still Stand Firm Against the Fanatics
  4. Confession Concerning Christ's Supper
  5. The Marburg Colloquy
  6. Concerning Rebaptism

9. Reformation and Politics—Support Resistance (1525-30)
  1. Principles
  2. Spread of the Reformation
  3. Persecution and Martyrdom
  4. Alliances and Counteralliances—the Reformation and Political Developments in the Empire
  5. The Threat from the Turks

10. At the Coburg Because of the Diet of Augsburg
  1. The Departure
  2. At Fortress Coburg
  3. Literary and Theological Work
  4. A Participant in Absentia at the Diet

11. From the Diet of Augsburg to the Nuremberg Standstill, 1532

1. The Permissibility of Resisting the Emperor
2. Warning to His Dear German People
3. Support for a Religious Peace

12. Home, Community, Church, and Theology (1530-32)

1. Personal Welfare, Family, and Home
2. Both Preacher and Pastor in Wittenberg
3. Demands and Difficulties in the Church of Electoral Saxony and Other Evangelical Churches
4. The Teacher of Justification

Abbreviations

Notes

Index