

Table of Contents

Translator's Preface
Foreword
Sources of Illustrations

I. PEACEFUL BEGINNINGS UNDER ELECTOR JOHN Frederick—BUT WITH MOST OF THE OLD PROBLEMS (1532-36)

1. Elector John Frederick
2. Electoral Saxony and Its Church
3. Wittenberg
4. Home, Family, and Personal Health

II. LUTHER'S ROLE IN THE REFORMATION'S PROGRESS IN OTHER GERMAN TERRITORIES, THE AGREEMENT ON THE LORD'S SUPPER, AND THE RELATIONSHIPS WITH FRANCE AND ENGLAND (1532-36)

1. The Reformation in the Principality of Anhalt
2. Relationships with Other Territories and Their Reformation
3. Defense against the Münster Anabaptists
4. The Agreement between the Southern Germans and Luther on the Lord's Supper in the Wittenberg Concord
5. France and England

III. RENEWED STRIFE WITH OLD OPPONENTS

1. Duke George and the Repression of the Reformation in Ducal Saxony (1532-39)
2. The Private Mass and the Consecration of Priests
3. Erasmus and Witzel
4. The Injustice of Archbishop Albrecht of Mainz

IV. COMPLETING THE TRANSLATION OF THE BIBLE

1. Translating the Prophets and the Apocrypha
2. Revisions
3. Arguing with the Critics
4. Praising and Recommending the Bible

V. THE PROFESSOR

1. The University: Its Organization and Constitution
2. The Ordinations

3. Graduations and Disputations
4. The Final Lectures
5. The Collected Works

VI. THEOLOGICAL CONTROVERSIES IN WITTENBERG

1. On the Significance of Repentance in Justification—the "Cordatus Controversy"
2. The Repudiation of Jacob Schenk
3. John Agricola and the Antinomian Controversy

VII. LUTHER AND THE COUNCIL (1533-39)

1. Initial Catholic Probes and Evangelical Reactions
2. Summoning the Council to Mantua, Luther's Articles, and the Smalcald Assembly in 1537
3. The Illness
4. Critical Publications against the Pope
5. The Final Position: On the Councils and the Churches

VIII. THE RIGHT OF RESISTANCE, ATTEMPTS AT PEACE, THE DEFECTION OF THE LANDGRAVE, AND RELIGIOUS COLLOQUIES (1538-41)

1. New Discussions on the Right of Resistance
2. The Peace Negotiations in Frankfurt, 1539
3. The Calamitous Bigamy of Landgrave Philip
4. The Religious Colloquies and Their Expected Failure

IX. PERSONAL AFFAIRS (1537-46)

1. Ill, Old, and Tired of Living
2. Marriage, Children, Family, and Guests
3. Home, Household, Garden, and Property
4. Social Life, Festivals, and Music

X. LUTHER'S CONGREGATION—WITTENBERG (1537-46)

1. The Preacher and Pastor
2. The Congregation

XI. LUTHER'S CHURCH—ELECTORAL SAXONY (1537-46)

1. The Relationship to Electoral Saxon Society
2. Pastors and Congregations
3. Church Administration and Church Order

XII. THE PROGRESS OF THE LUTHERAN REFORMATION IN THE GERMAN EMPIRE AND IN EUROPE

1. The Reformation in Ducal Saxony
2. The Reformation in the Electorate of Brandenburg
3. Halle—Between Albrecht of Mainz and Electoral Saxony
4. The Reformation Experiment in the Dioceses of Naumburg and Merseburg
5. Relationships with Smaller Neighboring Territories
6. The Other German Territories and Adjacent Lands
7. The Reformation in European Lands
8. The Action against Duke Henry of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel and the Reformation in Brunswick—Wolfenbüttel
9. Renewed Controversy about the Lord's Supper

XIII. THE ENEMIES OF CHRIST AND OF HIS CHURCH: JEWS, TURKS, AND THE POPE

1. The Jews (1525-46)
2. The Turks
3. The Pope (1542-46)

XIV. THE FINAL JOURNEY

1. The Unity Negotiations in Eisleben
2. "Now Lettest Thou Thy Servant..."
3. "Dead Is the Charioteer of Israel"—Burial and Remembrance

Abbreviations

Notes

Index

Subject Index to Volumes 1-3