

Table of Contents

Preface

Introduction: Diversity

Chapter 1. Reading for Diversity

Diversity in the New Testament
Eclipsing the Diversity
Harmonizing the Diversity
Reducing to the Lowest Common Denominators
Looking at the Whole New Testament through One Lens
Accepting the Diversity
Embracing the Diversity
Reading for Diversity
Reading for Renewal
An Explanatory Note on the Use of the Term “Judeans”
Further Reading

Chapter 2. Galatians: Justification by Grace

Background and Purpose
The Two Ways: Justification by Works of Law or Justification by Grace
The Human Condition: Life under Law
The Vision for Human Life: Life in Response to Grace
The Transformation: Grace as the Means to Righteousness
Pauline/Galatians Trajectories
Example of a Pauline Community
Further Reading

Chapter 3. The Gospel of Mark: Courage in the Face of Death

Background and Purpose
The Two Ways: “Saving” One’s Life out of Fear or “Losing” One’s Life for Others
The Human Condition: The Fearful Saving of Self
The Vision for Human Life: The Courage to Live for Others
The Transformation: New Life, Sight, and Empowerment in the Face of Death
Markan Trajectories
Example of a Markan Community
Further Reading

Chapter 4. The Gospel of Matthew: Righteous Integrity

Background and Purpose

The Two Ways: The Law Interpreted by Pharisees or the Law Interpreted by Jesus

The Human Condition: Blind Hypocrisy

The Vision for Human Life: Righteous Integrity

The Transformation: A Relationship with Jesus of Blessing and Forgiveness

Matthean Trajectories

Example of a Matthean Community

Further Reading

Chapter 5. The Gospel of Luke: Society with Mercy

Background and Purpose

The Two Ways: Society with Mercy or Society without Mercy

The Human Condition: Society without Mercy is Oppression

The Vision for Life: Society with Mercy

The Transformation: Human Repentance, Divine Forgiveness, and the Power of the Spirit

Lukan Trajectories

Example of a Lukan Community

Further Reading

Chapter 6. The Gospel of John: Eternal Life in the Present

Background and Purpose

The Two Ways: Knowing God or Not Knowing God

The Human Condition: Not Knowing God is Death

The Vision for Life: Knowing God is Eternal Life

The Transformation: Union with Jesus Made Possible by his Death and the Presence of the Holy Spirit

Johannine Trajectories

Example of a Johannine Community

Further Reading

Chapter 7. Reading for Renewal

Preserving the Diversity

Avoiding Idolatry

Canonical Respect for Diversity

Reading to Renew Our Own Traditions

Renewal from Another Biblical Model

Renewal Through Encountering Many Models

Renewal Through Relationships with Congregations of Other Traditions

Creating New Models
Commitment to Diversity within Denominational Structures
Diversity in the World

Epilogue: Reflection on Unity

Unity by Agreement
Unity Based on Commonalities
Unity through Appreciation of Differences
Unity as Participation
Unity through a Vision of Inclusion
The Canon as Model
Unity Given by God

Study Guide for the Challenge of Diversity

Some Suggestions for Parish Life
Course Outline
Questions for Discussion: Chapter by Chapter