

Table of Contents

Preface

Introduction to Volume Three: Confessing the Faith

1. “Theology Matters”
2. What Does It Mean to “Confess” the Faith?
3. The Plan of This Volume

Part I: The Church

Chapter One: The Confessing Church

1. Confession as the Church’s Mode of World-Commitment
2. Christological Foundations of the Confessing Church

Chapter Two: Contours of the Church

3. The True Church: Parameters of the Discussion
4. The Marks of the Church
5. The Church and the Churches
6. The Body and Its Members
7. Church, Society, and State
8. The Church and the Faith of Others

Chapter Three: Mission, Message, and Ministry

9. What Is “the Christian Mission”?
10. The World-Orientation of the Christian Mission
11. The Mission as “Message”
12. Ministry: The Empowerment of Mission

Part II: Metamorphosis: From Christendom to Diaspora

Chapter Four: Disestablishment and the Crisis of Mainline Protestantism

13. The Changed and Changing Status of the Christian Movement
14. Change and Response to Change: An Overview
15. Establishment and Disestablishment in North America
16. “The Task of Disestablishment”
17. On Being a Diaspora in a “Christian” Context

Chapter Five: Christian Life in a Post-Christian Context

18. Sojourners
19. Resources for the Journey
20. The Covenantal Basis of the Disciple Community
21. The Doctrine of Election
22. The Ethic of Resistance and the Ethic of Responsibility

Part III: The Forms of Faith's Confession

Chapter Six: Christian Confession as Word, Deed, and Stance

23. The Forms of Faith's Confession
24. Confession as Address: Preaching the Faith
25. Other Verbal Forms of Faith's Confession
26. Confession as Deed
27. Confession as Stance

Chapter Seven: Theological Ethics

28. The Context of Christian Ethical Discussion
29. Ethics as Discipleship
30. The Ethics of a Prophetic Minority

Part III: The Reign of God and Christian Hope

Chapter Eight: Confessing Hope

31. "Hope against Hope"
32. What Is Eschatology?

Chapter Nine: Creaturely Destiny

33. The Reign of God and History
34. The Journey of the Self

Conclusion

Index of Subjects

Index of Names