

Table of Contents

Introduction

Part I: What Is Mysticism?

1. We Are All Mystics

Mysticism of Childhood

Are Mystics Completely Different?

Mystical Sensibility

"I Am What I Do": C. S. Lewis

2. Ecstasy

Stepping Out and Immersing Oneself

Commotion and Unity: Martin Buber

Rabi'a and Sufi Mysticism

Mansur al-Hallaj: Agnus Dei Mohamedanus

We Have Not Been Created for Small Things

3. Definitions, Methods, Delimitations

From the Hermeneutic of Suspicion to a Hermeneutic of Hunger

Pluralism of Methods and Contextuality

The Distinction between Genuine and False Mysticism

4. Finding Another Language

The Cloud of Unknowing and the Cloud of Forgetting

Sunder Warumbe: Without a Why or Wherefore

A Language without Dominance

The Via Negativa, the Way of Negation

The Paradox

Silence

5. The Journey

Ladders to Heaven and Stations on Earth

Purification, Illumination, Union: The Three Ways of Classic Mysticism

Traces of a Different Journey: Thomas Müntzer

Being Amazed, Letting Go, Resisting: Outline of a Mystical Journey for Today

Part II: Places of Mystical Experience

6. Nature

Places and Placelessness

A Morning Hymn: Harriet Beecher Stowe

Monotheism, Pantheism, Panentheism

Sharing and Healing: A Different Relation to the Earth

7. Eroticism

Heavenly and Earthly Love and Their Inseparability

The Song of Songs

Marguerite Porète and the Enrapturing Far-Near One

The Bitterness of Ecstasy: D. H. Lawrence and Ingeborg Bachmann

Sacred Power

8. Suffering

Job: The Satanic and the Mystical Wager

Between Dolorousness and Suffering

"Even When It Is Night": John of the Cross

"Better in Agony than in Numbness": Twentieth-Century Mysticism of Suffering

9. Community

The Hidden Sacred Sparks: Hasidim

Community, the Sinai of the Future: An Examination of Buber's Relation to Mysticism

Without Rules and Poor, Persecuted, and Free: The Beguines

The Society of Friends and the Inner Light

10. Joy

The Mystical Relation to Time: Thich Nhat Hanh

Publicans, Jesters, and Other Fools: The Abolition of Divisions

Dancing and Leaping: The Body Language of Joy

The Relation of Mysticism and Aesthetics

Part III: Mysticism Is Resistance

11. As If We Lived in a Liberated World

The Prison We Have Fallen Asleep In: Globalization and Individualization

Out of the Home into Homelessness

Acting and Dreaming: Becoming Martha and Mary
The Fruits of Apartheid

12. Ego and Ego-lessness

The Ego: The Best Prison Guard

"Go Where You Are Nothing!"

Asceticism: For and Against

Tolstoy's Conversion from the Ego to God

Freedom from the "Ring of Cold": Dag Hammarskjöld

Success and Failure

13. Possession and Possessionlessness

Having or Being

Naked and Following the Naked Savior: Francis of Assisi

John Woolman and the Society of Slave Owners

Voluntary Poverty: Dorothy Day

Middle Roads and Crazy Freedoms

14. Violence and Nonviolence

The Unity of All Living Beings

The Duty of Civil Disobedience: Henry David Thoreau

Mahatma Gandhi and Ahimsa

"Our Weapon Is to Have None": Martin Luther King Jr.

Between Hopes and Defeats

15. A Mysticism of Liberation

The Death and Life of Severino: João Cabral

Kneeling Down and Learning to Walk Upright: The Theology of Liberation

"When You Dance with Death, You Must Dance Well": Pedro Casaldáliga

The Voice of the Mute: Dom Helder Camara

Learning to Pray and a Different Mysticism

Notes

Bibliography

Index