

Table of Contents

Preface

1. The Preacher's Self-Understanding

The Black Church and Self-Understanding

The Selfhood of the Preacher: The Example of Martin Luther King Jr.

The Self in Community

Sermon: Everybody's Talking (Luke 4:31-37)/23

2. The Preaching of the Elders: Princes of the African American Pulpit

John Malcus Ellison: The Personality and Interpretive Mind of the Preacher

Samuel DeWitt Proctor: The Ethical Dimensions of a Sermon

Miles Jerome Jones: On Being an Authentic Preacher

Sermon: From Talk to Testimony (Mark 8:27-30)/44

3. The Sermon as Interpretation

The Polyvalence of the Sermon

The Deep Symbolism of Plain Words

Textuality and Dialogue Preaching

Understanding and Response

Interpretation of Novels as a Hermeneutical Discipline

Sermon: The Power of God (Ephesians 1:18-23)/71

4. The Sermon as Art

Beyond the Limits of Reason Alone

Nommo and Kuntu: Word and Style in Preaching

Embodied Preaching: Gestures

A Soulful Sound: The Aural and the Oral

Rhythm and Cadence in Preaching

Style Switching

Sermon: Second Chances (Jonah 3:1-3a)/95

5. The Sermon as Story

African American Preaching as Imagination

Telling the Story: Narrative Structure in Sermons

Cultural Origins of Storytelling

Sermon: When Jesus Was in the House (Mark 2:1-5)/119

6. Preaching Plainly: How to Put the Sermon Together — The Harris Method

Preaching and Worship

The Word Made Plain

The Preacher and the Biblical and Congregational Text

Developing the Sermon

Sermon: A Question of Identity — Chaos, Self, and Other (Luke 8:22-25)/140

Notes

Index