

Table of Contents

Preface

1. Postmodernity

The Nature of Change
The Premodern and Modern Ages
The Postmodern Experiment
Characteristics of Postmodernity

2. Parables: A Window of Truth for Postmoderns

Definition of Parable
Relationship of Jesus' Parables to the Hebrew Tradition
The Purpose of the Parable
Characteristics of the Parables of Jesus
Interpreting the Parables for Preaching
Steps in Developing the Homiletical Text
Preaching Parables to a Postmodern Age

3. A Study of Parables for Sermon Preparation

Parable One: The Sower (Matthew 13:1-23)
Parable Two: The Unforgiving Servant (Matthew 18:21-35)
Parable Three: Laborers in the Vineyard (Matthew 20:1-16)
Parable Four: Talents (Matthew 25:14-30)
Parable Five: The Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37)
Parable Six: The Friend at Midnight (Luke 11:1-13)
Parable Seven: The Rich Fool (Luke 12:13-14)
Parable Eight: The Prodigal Son (Luke 15:1-32)
Parable Nine: The Persistent Widow (Luke 18:1-8)
Parable Ten: The Pharisee and the Tax Collector (Luke 18:9-14)
Conclusion

4. Four Sermons

Sermon One: The Unforgiving Servant (Matthew 18:21-35)
Sermon Two: Talents (Matthew 25:14-30)
Sermon Three: The Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37)
Sermon Four: The Prodigal Son (Luke 15:1-32)

Notes
Bibliography
Index