

Table of Contents

Prologue

1. Speaking of God

Requires a prior interior silence
Has its own style
Involves our whole being
Regards God alone
Needs the mediation of a belief
Regards symbol and not concept
Includes several meanings
Does not exhaust the divine
Leads back to a new silence

2. The experience of God

The silence of life
Constituents of the experience
Faith, acts of faith, and belief
The triple horizon of divinity
Fragments on the experience of God
Of initiation
Passive attitude: yin

3. Christian experience of God

Three visions of God and world
Conceiving the divine
Distinguishing Christ and Jesus
Identification and identity
Three texts
Jesus of Nazareth

4. Privileged places of the experience of God

Love
The thou

Joy
Suffering
Evil
Pardon
Crucial moments
Nature
Silence
Propitious Places

Epilogue
Illustrations