

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	1
Introduction	5

Part I. Charting Critical Feminist Biblical Hermeneutics

1. Interpreting Patriarchal Traditions	25
2. Toward a Christian Feminist Biblical Hermeneutics: Biblical Interpretation and Liberation Theology	41
3. Feminist Interpretation and New Testament Studies	59
4. For the Sake of the Truth Dwelling among Us: Emerging Issues in Feminist Biblical Interpretation	71
5. The Will to Choose or to Reject: Continuing Our Critical Work	89
6. Feminist Hermeneutics	101
7. Theology as Rhetoric, Ethics, and Critique of Ideology	119
8. Disciplinary Matters: A Critical Rhetoric and Ethic of Inquiry	135
9. The Power of Empire and the Rhetoric of Scripture	155

Part II. Practicing Feminist Biblical Interpretation

10. To Set the Record Straight: Biblical Women's Studies	171
11. Biblical Interpretation and Critical Commitment: The Gospel of John	181
12. The Politics of Otherness: Biblical Interpretation as a Critical Praxis for Liberation	195
13. "Waiting at Table": A Critical Feminist The*logical Reflection on Diakonia	213
14. The Twelve and the Discipleship of Equals	223
15. Resisting Violence—Engendering Easter	233
16. Liberation, Unity, and Equality in Community: New Testament Case Studies	243
17. Bread/Rice of Wisdom: Interpretation for Liberation	259

18. Wisdom's "Dance": Practicing a Critical Feminist Interpretation 275
19. Claiming the Word: Charting Global Feminist Biblical Studies 289