

Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Foreword | ix |
| Preface | xi |
| 1. Introduction: Paul's Relevance Today | 1 |
| The Relevance of a Necessary Theme | 4 |
| 2. Methodological Considerations | 16 |
| A Starting Point | 16 |
| Methodological Convergence or Eclecticism? | 20 |
| Some Key Concepts | 23 |
| 3. Antecedents and Thesis | 31 |
| Antecedents | 31 |
| My Working Hypothesis | 32 |
| "The Historical Bloc" of the Roman Principate | 34 |
| The Presence of the Church: Paul and the Church of Thessalonica | 37 |
| The Construction of a Theology as a Symbolic Organizer: | |
| An Ideological Confrontation with the Empire | 41 |
| Hermeneutical Elaborations | 43 |
| 4. The Urban Character of the Church among Gentiles | 46 |
| The Existence of a Different Modality of Labor | 47 |
| The Organization of an Urban Religious Rationality | 47 |
| Forms of Urban Living in the Religious Context | 49 |
| 5. Life in Thessalonica | 51 |
| Thessalonica in the Empire | 51 |
| Social Makeup | 52 |
| Economic and Political Facts | 53 |
| Ideological and Religious Factors | 53 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| 6. Social Composition of the Church of Thessalonica | 56 |
| The North Atlantic Multiclassist Consensus | 56 |
| The “Extreme Poverty” of the Churches of Macedonia | 58 |
| The Community of Artisans of Thessalonica | 64 |
| Working Day and Night | 64 |
| Evaluation of Manual Labor | 66 |
| Paul and His Artisan Brothers and Sisters of Thessalonica | 70 |
| 7. Paul and the Gentile Church | 72 |
| 8. The Political Analogy in Pauline Language | 77 |
| The Assembly of a Particular People | 77 |
| The Government of Jesus the Kyrios | 79 |
| A Political Project | 81 |
| The Language of Brotherhood and Sisterhood | 82 |
| The Semantic Field of the Political Analogy | 83 |
| 9. The Text of the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians | 86 |
| 10. The Missionary Project of Paul in the First Letter to the Thessalonians | 90 |
| The Practice of Communicating the Message | 90 |
| Paul’s “Autobiography” and the Evangelization Strategy | 94 |
| Confrontation with Other Ideologies | 96 |
| An Example of the Strategy Itself | 100 |
| The Strategic Goal | 102 |
| The “Strategy” of Persecution | 104 |
| 11. The Risk and Future of Paul’s Strategy | 109 |
| The Eschatological Dimension of the Mission | 110 |
| The Identity Threatened, Strategy at Risk | 113 |
| Mutual Confirmation | 118 |
| The Identity Assured | 119 |
| The Future Strategy | 123 |
| 12. An Excluding Option | 125 |
| Structure of the Ethical Discourse | 125 |
| The Path to Sanctification | 127 |
| Sexual Ethics as Differentiation | 127 |
| A Different Vision of Power Relations | 129 |
| God at the Center of Human Relations | 129 |
| Continuity and Rupture with Pagan Society | 131 |

| | |
|--|----------------|
| 13. The Awaited Revolution | 133 |
| The Revolutionary Proclamation | 133 |
| Not Like the Others, Who Have No Hope | 134 |
| The Identity: Being with God | 135 |
| The Revolutionary Promise | 136 |
| The "Seizure of Power" | 137 |
| The Value of Political Irrationality as Hope | 140 |
| Excursus I On the Rapture | 142 |
| 14. The Counterhegemonic Strategy | 145 |
| A Discourse of Confrontation | 145 |
| An Ignorance That Stands for Knowledge | 146 |
| The Power That Redeems the Weak | 147 |
| Neither Much Peace, Nor Much Security | 148 |
| An Enlightened Confrontation | 149 |
| The Conduct That Anticipates the Kingdom | 151 |
| The Confrontation and the Symbolic Creativity | 152 |
| 15. Paul in Thessalonica according to Acts | 156 |
| Analysis of Acts 17:1-10 | 156 |
| Socioanalytical Aspects | 159 |
| The Antecedent of Philippi | 160 |
| Athens: A Center of the Dominant Ideology | 163 |
| The Confrontation at Thessalonica | 165 |
| The Ideological Confrontation and the Political Conflict | 171 |
| 16. Paul as a "Strategist" and "the Christian Revolution" | 173 |
| Paul as a "A Revolutionary Strategist" | 173 |
| Paul's Strategy in 1 Thessalonians | 174 |
| The Emerging Faith and Antihegemonic Struggle | 175 |
| Paul's Strategy and the Lord's Coming | 176 |
| What Is "the Christian Revolution"? | 177 |
| Strategy in the Face of Power | 179 |
| History and Determinism in "the Christian Revolution" | 180 |
| Differentiation and Unity in Paul's Strategy | 182 |
| Excursus II Nascent Christianity Viewed by the Empire | 183 |
| Christianity as Superstition | 183 |
| Christianity as Hatred of Humanity | 184 |
| Christianity as a Novelty and a Curse | 185 |
| Christianity as Atheism | 187 |
| Conclusion: Christianity as an Enemy of the Empire | 187 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Excursus III A Hermeneutical and Theological Reflection | 189 |
| Notes | 193 |
| Bibliography | 227 |
| Biblical Sources | 227 |
| Classical Sources | 227 |
| Sources Consulted and Cited | 227 |
| Indexes | 239 |
| Index 1 | 391 |
| Index 2 | 402 |