

Contents

Preface

ix

Part I. Approach: Points of Entry and Difficulties of Access

- | | |
|--|----|
| 1. Luther: Objectively and/or Subjectively | 3 |
| 2. Methodological Problems | 11 |
| 3. Entry Points | 17 |
| 4. Difficulties in Approaching Luther | 29 |

Part II. Perceptions: Luther's Theology as Provocation

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 5. Alternatives: Between Cross and Self-Determination | 77 |
| 6. Breakthrough: From the Hidden to the Revealed God | 101 |
| 7. Tension: Between Law and Gospel | 135 |
| 8. Identity: "Both Sinner and Justified" | 157 |
| 9. Dialectics: Freedom and Limitation | 199 |
| 10. Complementarity: Word and Sacrament | 221 |
| 11. Struggle: Between the "True" and the "False" Church | 277 |
| 12. Division of Labor: God's Left and Right Hands | 313 |
| 13. Christian Existence: Secular and Spiritual | 349 |
| 14. Intercalation: Time and Eternal Life | 377 |
| 15. Conflict: Between Theology and Philosophy | 399 |
| 16. Rivalry: Between Sacred Scripture and Human Tradition | 429 |

Part III. Consequences: With Luther beyond Luther

- | | |
|--------------------------------|-----|
| 17. What Endures | 461 |
| 18. What We Should Let Go | 467 |
| 19. What Needs to Be Developed | 475 |

20. Martin Luther's Theology: Existentially Inspiring and Open for Global Integration	487
Appendix: Technical Notes	497
Indexes	515