

CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Foreword to the Second Edition Stephen G. Ray Jr. | xi |
| Preface | xxi |
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1 REVELATION AND LIBERATION | 13 |
| The Meaning of Revelation | 15 |
| The Meaning of Liberation | 18 |
| Two Aspects of African American Religion | 21 |
| Narrative and African American Theological Discourse | 28 |
| Narrative and Method in African American Theology | 31 |
| 2 THE BIBLE: A TEXT FOR OUTSIDERS | 37 |
| The Bible and Slavery | 39 |
| The Bible and Liberation | 45 |
| Dismembering the Text: Remembering the Story | 50 |
| Biblical Foundations for Black Theology | 57 |
| 3 THE UNGIVEN GOD | 61 |
| The Problem of God in African American Experience | 63 |
| The Idea of God | 67 |
| The Concept of God | 72 |
| God, Freedom, and Impartiality | 77 |
| God, Love, and Partisanship | 79 |
| God, Personhood, Creativity | 82 |

| | | |
|---|--|-----|
| 4 | JESUS CHRIST: LIBERATOR AND MEDIATOR | 89 |
| | The “Figura” of Christ in African American Experience | 90 |
| | Jesus and the Disinherited | 96 |
| | The Development of Christology in Black Theology | 99 |
| | Conclusion | 106 |
| 5 | ON BEING BLACK | 115 |
| | The Problem of Humanity in African American Experience | 117 |
| | Racism and the Christian Understanding of Humanity | 121 |
| | The Doctrine of Humanity in Black Theology | 125 |
| | Three Dimensions of Human Existence | 131 |
| 6 | THE COMMUNITY OF FAITH AND THE SPIRIT OF FREEDOM | 139 |
| | The Problem of Community in African American Religious Experience | 140 |
| | The Church in Black Theology | 150 |
| | Toward an African American Ecclesiology | 156 |
| 7 | THE LAST SHALL BE FIRST | 165 |
| | History and Hope in African American Experience | 166 |
| | Eschatology in Black Theology | 172 |
| | History, Hope, and Freedom | 178 |
| 8 | WE HAVE BEEN BELIEVERS: THREE TWENTIETH-ANNIVERSARY RESPONSES | 183 |
| | A Womanist Conjure on We Have Been Believers Linda E. Thomas | 183 |
| | The Meaning of We Have Been Believers for the Black Church Jeremiah A. Wright Jr. | 189 |
| | A Black Evangelical Response to We Have Been Believers Bruce L. Fields | 194 |
| | Afterword | 201 |
| | James H. Evans Jr. | |
| | Notes | 205 |
| | Index | 227 |