

Contents

Introduction: The Challenge of Interpreting Romans as a Missionary Letter

1. Opening Paul's Letter (1:1-17)
2. Defining Sin as Suppression of the Truth (1:18-32)
3. Overturning Sinful Claims of Superior Status (2:1-3:8)bbb
4. The Evidence of Universal Sin (3:9-20)
5. Atonement through the Shameful Cross Conveys Grace to All (3:21-31)
6. Abraham as the Father of All Who Are Righteous through Faith (4:1-25)
7. Christ Overcomes Adam's Fall and Establishes a New System of Boasting (5:1-21)
8. New Life in Christ (6:1-23)
9. The Gospel Overcomes Law's Perversion (7:1-25)
10. The Contrast between Flesh and Spirit in Coping with Vulnerability (8:1-39)
11. Israel's Election and the Tragic Riddle of Unbelief (9:1-10:4)
12. The Gospel of Righteousness by Faith Preached and Rejected (10:5-21)
13. The Meaning of Israel's Temporary Trespass and Ultimate Conversion (11:1-36)
14. The Motivation and Assessment of Honorable Behavior (12:1-13:7)
15. The Love Feast and the Critical Time (13:8-14)
16. Proposing a Radical New Form of Mutual Acceptance (14:1-15:13)
17. The Cooperative Mission in Jerusalem, Rome and Spain (15:14-33)
18. The Varied Endings of Paul's Letter (16:17-20, 25-27, 20b + 24)

List of Works Cited

Appendix: Translation of Paul's Letter to the Romans