

Dean and President Cynthia Briggs Kittredge is a contributor to The New Oxford Annotated Bible and the Women's Bible Commentary, is the author of Conversations with Scripture: The Gospel of John and Community and Authority: The Rhetoric of Obedience in the Pauline Tradition. She co-edited The Bible in the Public Square: Reading the Signs of the Times and Walk in the Ways of Wisdom: Essays in Honor of Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza. She is the co-editor of the Fortress Commentary on the Bible: The New Testament (2014).

---

Much-Anticipated Release of Fortress Commentary on the Bible

Fortress Press proudly announces the Fortress Commentary on the Bible, a collaborative scholarly project years in the making. This two volume set synthesizes current scholarship on every book of the Bible, including Apocrypha, with entries consistently focusing on ancient context, history of interpretation, and contemporary significance. Fortress editor Scott Tunseth, who has overseen the project from its inception alongside Neil Elliott, Acquisitions Editor for Biblical Studies, explains that the ultimate effect of the scholarship represented in the Fortress Commentary on the Bible is "to ignite a conversation through the raising of critical questions."

Both the Fortress Commentary on the Bible: Old Testament and Apocrypha and The Fortress Commentary on the Bible: New Testament open with introductory essays that orient the reader to the challenge and promise of interpreting the Old and New Testament in the twenty-first century and include Section Introductions orienting readers to the historical and contextual concerns of each collection (e.g., Themes and Perspectives in the Torah; Jesus and the Christian Gospels). Biblical books are addressed by one of over 75 top biblical scholars whose focus centers on the value of current scholarship for the contemporary world.

Volume editors for Old Testament are Gale A. Yee (Nancy W. King Professor of Biblical Studies at Episcopal Divinity School, Cambridge, Massachusetts), Hugh R. Page Jr. (associate professor of Theology and Africana Studies, vice president, associate provost, and dean of the First Year of Studies at the University of Notre Dame), and Matthew J. M. Coomber (assistant professor of biblical studies at St. Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa). For New Testament, the volume editors are Margaret Aymer (associate professor of New Testament at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia), Cynthia Briggs Kittredge (president, dean, and professor of New Testament at Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest in Austin, Texas), and David Sánchez (associate professor of theological studies and director of American Cultures at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, California). The Fortress Commentary on the Bible makes the latest biblical scholarship accessible to students, pastors and lay learners and also promises to provide an excellent foundational resource for the further research of biblical scholars and instructors in Bible. For more information, please visit fortresspress.com/fcob/about.