

CONTENTS

Foreword: A Friendship of Shared Memories	vii
Introduction David B. Lott	1

Part I. Thinking and Knowing: Theology as Contextual Practice

1. Invitation to Theology	13
2. Theology and Faith	23
3. Defining Contextuality	33
4. The Sisyphus Syndrome	53
5. Modes of Knowing	65
6. ...But How?	85

Part II. The Crucified God and the Suffering Christ: Theology in the Context of the Cross

7. Theology and Doctrinal Traditions	103
8. Theology of the Cross as Contextual Theology	113
9. Reasons for the Ideological Triumph of the Positive	129
10. The Crucified God	139
11. Redemption: Conquest from Within	153

Part III. Ecclesiology and Ethics: Theology in the Context of Disestablishment

12. The Church and the Cross	181
13. The True Church	199
14. The Object of Disestablishment: Mission and Service	217
15. The Ethic of Resistance and the Ethic of Responsibility	227
16. Stewards of the Mysteries of God: Preserving Classical Protestant Theology	237
Bibliography	253