

Contents

Acknowledgments	x i
Introduction	1
Part I. The Vulnerability of the Human Condition
1. The Fundamentals of Human Vulnerability Embodiment and Interrelationality	33
2. The Complexity of Human Vulnerability Perishing, Conflict, and Ambiguity	67
3. The Violation of Human Vulnerability Anxiety, Egocentrism, and Violence	103
4. Violated Vulnerability and the Violence of Privilege	135
Part II. The Trinitarian Dynamics of Divine Love and Human Redemption: A Theological Anthropology of Resilience and Resistance
Theological Interlude and Introduction to Part Two	177

5.	Do Not Be Afraid The Invulnerability of the Imago Dei	183
6.	And She Gave Birth The Vulnerability of the Imago's Incarnation	207
7.	Rachel's Lament and Mary's Flight Love's Longing for Abundant Life	241
Part III. To Suckle God with Exercises of Love
8.	Practices of Resilience and Resistance Memory, Contemplation, and Solidarity	265
9.	Conclusion Contemplating Vulnerability	311
	Bibliography	321
	Index	337