

Contents

| | |
|---|------|
| Acknowledgments | ix |
| Foreword | xi |
| Fruit for the Soul: Luther on the Lament Psalms | xvii |
| 1. Psalm 6: Consolation Hidden in its Opposite: Profoundly Terrified but Profoundly Comforted | 1 |
| 2. Psalm 51: No Other Theme but This: Wrapped in the Bosom of God Who Is Grace | 25 |
| 3. Psalm 77: Meditation on All God's Works: Reaping Justification by Faith as the Fruit | 85 |
| 4. Psalm 90: Moses Being "Most Mosaic": A Minister of Law, Sin, and Death | 157 |
| 5. Psalm 94: Praying against the Enemies: Negative Capability and Positive Agency | 199 |
| 6. Psalm 118: Soaring above Distress: The Efficacy of God's Right Hand | 229 |

| | |
|-------------------|-----|
| Conclusion | 299 |
| Bibliography | 311 |
| Index of Names | 333 |
| Index of Subjects | 337 |