

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Series Preface | ix |
| Acknowledgments | xi |
| 1. Introduction | 1 |
| Part I. Definitions of Catholic Enlightenment | |
| 2. What is Catholic Enlightenment? Some Characteristics | 25 |
| 3. The “Heresy-Hunting” of the Obscurantists and the “Martyrdom” of the Enlighteners: Forgotten Characteristics of Anti-Enlightenment and Catholic Enlightenment | 43 |
| Part II. Ecumenism and Theological Pluralism as Main Tenets of the Catholic Enlightenment | |
| 4. Ghosts of Westphalia: Fictions and Ideals of Ecclesial Unity in Enlightenment Germany | 63 |
| 5. Enlightenment and Ecumenism: Beda Mayr (1742–94) | 83 |
| 6. A Tolerant Theology? Catholic Irenicism, Pluralism, and Indifferentism | 111 |

Part III. Church Reform

7. Johann Nikolaus von Hontheim's Febronius:
A Censored Bishop and His Ecclesiology 143
8. On the Way to Sacrosanctum Concilium:
The Liturgical Renewal of the Eighteenth Century 171

Part IV. Catholic Exegesis and the Challenge of Enlightenment Criticism

9. The Bible among Catholic Enlighteners 193
10. The Conundrums of Eighteenth-Century Catholic
Biblical Scholarship and J. L. Isenbiehl's
Interpretation of Isaiah 7:14 239
11. Apocalypse 2014—Post-Tridentine Catholic
Exegesis of Revelation:
The Futurist Commentary of Alphonsus Frey (1762) 279
12. Apocalypse, Enlightenment, and the Beginning of Salvation History:
The Ecumenical Friendship of J. J. Hess and
A. Sandbichler 307
13. Moses and Apollo:
The Beginnings of Comparative Religionsgeschichte
in Catholic Exegesis 331

| | |
|---------------------|-----|
| Bibliography | 353 |
| Publication Credits | 391 |
| Index of Names | 395 |