In brief, straightforward autobiographical statements, twenty-three distinguished theologians and scholars of religion discuss the development of their central insights and convictions in light of their life stories. The result is a fascinating range of insights into the close connection between life and theology. The volume includes previously published selections from Dialog: A Journal of Theology, as well as pieces specially commissioned for this volume. Robert Jenson, Martin Marty, Nancey Murphy, Wolfhart

Pannenberg, John Polkinghorne, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Letty Russell, and Kathryn Tanner are among the contributors.
