

Queer Theology

Challenging traditional interpretations of religious texts and religious cultures that condemn queer people, the works in this curated collection of new and forthcoming titles center the LGBTQIA+ experience and faith.

SHOW SPECIAL! Receive 30% off and free domestic shipping when you buy in person at this year's AARSBL. Shop online with code AARSBL25, and save through the end of 2025. Follow the QR code for full details. Visit FortressPress.com for our full list of available titles.

Saving Jesus: From Those Who Are Right, Second Edition
Carter Heyward

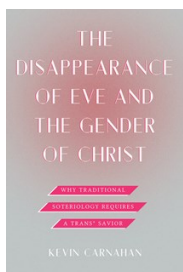

First published twenty-five years ago and continually in print, Saving Jesus remains a pioneering political Christology, intended to reframe our understanding of Jesus, his person, and his import, in light of contemporary culture, especially the rise of the Christian right. Employing the insights of liberation theologies – Latin American, feminist, Black theology – it offers a critical assessment of traditional Christology, a more relevant picture of Jesus and redemption, and an inspiring portrayal of its implications for discipleship and Christian life.

The new edition re-presents this important work with a new preface, placing the work in our deeply conflicted contemporary context and in the context of the church's ongoing reflection on the person and work of Jesus.

9798341900318

$37.00 - 30% AARSBL Discount

288 pgs | April 2026

The Disappearance of Eve and the Gender of Christ: Why Traditional Soteriology Requires a Trans Savior
Kevin Carnahan

After hundreds of years during which Eve was blamed for originating sin, St. Paul removed her from the narrative of the fall to create a "one man"/"one man" typology between Adam as the origin of sin and Christ as the source of salvation. But this disappearance created a theological problem, which The Disappearance of Eve and the Gender of Christ proposes to solve. It revises Paul's original formula and with it a set of common claims about Christ's sex and gender. It accepts Christ as the new Adam and the new Eve and accepts that Christ is, theologically speaking, trans*.

There exists a long tradition of seeing Christ as transgressing and even transitioning across sex and gender boundaries.

9798889833055

$35.00 - 30% AARSBL Discount

210 pgs | April 2025

Coming soon from Fortress Press

Laughing in a Tomb

Jesus and Camp Theology

by Brandon Ambrosino

FALL 2026

Jesus is a camp figure because he refuses to take the present moment seriously and always hopes for a better future. Camp theology takes seriously historical Jesus research, contemporary theologies, and cultural theory.

Queer Church

Creating Ministries that Center LGBTQIA+ Christians

by Mark Andrew Vorenkamp

SPRING 2027

Drawing upon historical and contemporary examples and trauma-informed practices, Vorenkamp explains how queer-specific ministries become spaces of community building where members create for themselves a place to belong and be accepted.

Poly in the Pews

Reexamining Relationships, Sex, and What it Means to be Faithful

by April Stace

SPRING 2027

Examines how polyamorous Christians navigate faith and relationships, offering insights into broader shifts in intimacy, commitment, and community. Stace seeks to spark thoughtful conversations in a time of profound cultural transformation.

Queering the Lectionary

Proclaiming Queer Gospels

by James Nicholas Hoke

SPRING 2027

Provides succinct queer commentaries on every Gospel text in the Revised Common Lectionary. Accessibly written, it offers rigorous analyses of the texts, informed by the original Greek language, historical and biblical context, and insights of queer and trans studies.

Desiring Utopia, Queering Church

Transforming the Church Symbolic into a Liberating Christian Community

by Kate Common

FALL 2027

The symbolic representation of church embedded in Western imagination unconsciously perpetuates oppression—even in communities striving for justice. Capitalizing on a queer theological perspective to transform both the imagined church and embodied congregational practice will lead to more liberating communities.

In the Middle of Everywhere

A Queer Love Letter to the Rural Church

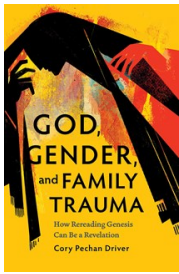

by Dean Aponte-Safe

FALL 2027

A queer pastor offers two subversive assumptions: rural communities can be places of queer healing as well as harm, and rural communities are spaces of abundance, not scarcity. Aponte-Safe demonstrates that by embracing sexuality and gender as beloved parts of God's vision, the rural church can explore exciting avenues for ministry and mission.

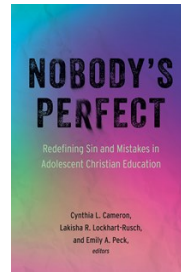

Excited about these books? Sign up for our Fortress Press newsletter to be the first to know when they're available!

Using trauma-informed scholarship and Jewish midrash, this book invites readers into new understandings of Genesis. Viewing figures such as Sarah, Joseph, and Tamar through this lens sheds light on what the Bible can teach us about gender and family trauma.

God, Gender, and Family Trauma: How Rereading Genesis Can Be a Revelation

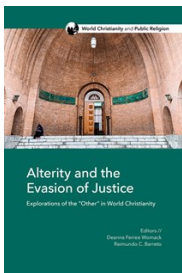

Cory Pechan Driver
9798889832201
$29.00 - 30% AARSBL Discount
146 pgs | March 2025

Some adolescents have the privilege to make mistakes in ways that others often do not. The editors offer a curated volume that affirms adolescents as fundamentally good and presents pathways that help youth distinguish mistakes from sin.

Nobody's Perfect: Redefining Sin and Mistakes in Adolescent Christian Education

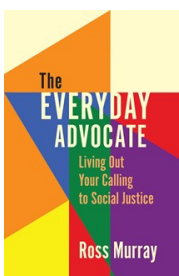

Edited by Cynthia L. Cameron, Lakisha R. Lockhart-Rusch, and Emily A. Peck 9798889832287
$35.00 - 30% AARSBL Discount
185 pgs | February 2025

Considers overlooked "others" in the field of World Christianity. Contributors point to gender, sexuality, and race as themes ripe for exploration, while also identifying other areas that have fallen outside the dominant World Christianity narrative.

Alterity and the Evasion of Justice: Explorations of the "Other" in World Christianity

Edited by Deanna Ferree Womack and Raimundo C. Barreto
9781506491318
$36.00 - 30% AARSBL Discount
364 pgs | August 2023

Encourages Christians to discern their call to advocate for justice, and shows them how to respond faithfully by taking practical steps in everyday life. Shows faith leaders how to help people think through their calling to advocacy and allyship.

The Everyday Advocate: Living Out Your Calling to Social Justice

Ross Murray
9781506485430
$22.99 - 30% AARSBL Discount
213 pgs | May 2023

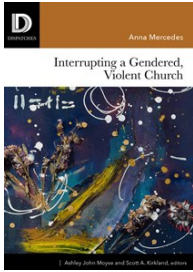

Builds on wisdom developed through The Naming Project, a ministry created at the intersection of youth, faith, and LGBTQ identity. Cofounder Ross Murray shows congregations how to examine their values to create programs that affirm LGBTQ youth.

Made, Known, Loved: Developing LGBTQ-Inclusive Youth Ministry

Ross Murray
9781506468006
$19.99 - 30% AARSBL Discount
199 pgs | April 2021

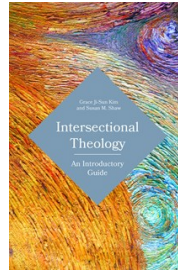

Working at the intersections of gender studies and Christian theology – particularly diverse feminist and queer theologies – this book points to the ways churches foster gender violence. Discusses this reality while also exploring church as a nexus for resistance.

Interrupting a Gendered, Violent Church

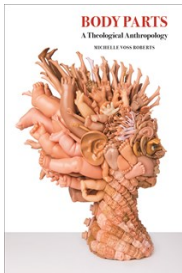

Anna Mercedes
9781506431598
$23.00 - 30% AARSBL Discount
174 pgs | June 2022

Offers a new approach to intersectional theology that encourages centering of social differences and structures of power in the ways we think about God, the church, and other theological categories.

Intersectional Theology: An Introductory Guide

Grace Ji-Sun Kim and Susan M. Shaw
9781506446097
$29.00 - 30% AARSBL Discount
170 pgs | November 2018

Christians have traditionally claimed that humans are created in the image of God, but have consistently defined that image in exclusionary ways. Body Parts claims the importance of embodiment, difference, and limitation – not only as descriptions of the human condition but also as part of the imago Dei itself.

Body Parts: A Theological Anthropology

Michelle Voss Roberts
9781506418568
$29.00 - 30% AARSBL Discount
232 pgs | December 2017

Eunuchs bore stereotyped associations regarding gender, sexual status, race, and class. Did the gospel of Luke intend to queer readers' expectations and so to present the boundary-transgressing potentiality of a new community?

Queering the Ethiopian Eunuch: Strategies of Ambiguity in Acts

Sean D. Burke
9781451465655
$49.00 - 30% AARSBL Discount
192 pgs | August 2013

