Emanuel Tov

$90.00

Available

Hardcover | 524 PGS

9781506483481

Since its initial publication in 1992, Textual Criticism of the Hebrew Bible has established itself as the indispensable resource for student, teacher, and researcher.

In this completely revised fourth edition, Emanuel Tov once again proves himself the authority on the text of the Hebrew Bible. While Tov incorporates the last ten years of scholarship, including the new studies on the Dead Sea Scrolls, this new volume presents a more simplified and practical analysis than its earlier editions.

Jonah: A Commentary

Susan Niditch

Hardcover | 162 PGS

In the new Hermeneia volume, renowned biblical scholar Susan Niditch encourages the reader to investigate challenging questions about ancient conceptions of personal religious identity.

In her study of Jonah's language, style, structure, content, and context, Niditch examines the text through the comparative lens of international folklore. Appropriations of Jonah by post-biblical creators is explored, and special attention is paid to rabbinic midrash, medieval Jewish manuscript illuminations, and Christian art of late antiquity.
